menALIVE is a Catholic ministry to men which commences with a weekend retreat that delivers relevant talks and personal testimonies, opportunities for discussion in small groups and importantly provides a space and environment for men to reflect. The retreat is suitable for all men from 15 years of age.

The experience of men gathering at a menALIVE to the MAX weekend can be dynamic and powerful. The result is that for many men, they are inspired, encouraged and feel that they have a new sense of purpose and mission.

menALIVE commenced in Brisbane in 2003 with the encouragement of Archbishop of Brisbane, John Bathersby. This was in response to a great need evident today in the hearts and lives of men and in the life of the Church. More than 3000 men have attended a menALIVE weekend in Queensland, New South Wales, South Australia, Tasmania, Western Australia and New Zealand with positive results.

menALIVE to the MAX is a great way to start the year, set some goals and listen to what God might say to us. With men travelling from all over Australia to attend, this is a weekend not to be missed.

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID...

"The retreat gave me a wonderful opportunity to connect with other blokes – all good men – to address some needs that perhaps I don't allow to surface too often. It was just good to share personally and to do so in the context of my Catholic faith." - Josh (Gladstone)

"For me, Menalive was not therapy or theology, pious preaching or evangelical enthusiasm, all of which would probably have turned me off. It was simply the power of brotherhood, ordinary blokes getting together in a spirit of solidarity, comradeship and care. We were sharing our common humanity as men, sharing our common responsibilities, interests and values: respect, honesty, concern and care. Barriers broke down when we came together and we became more alive." - David (Warwick)
